Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the question posed to him by the Pharisees, Jesus draws a more radical and vital question for each of us, a question we can ask ourselves: to whom do I belong? To family, to the city, to friends to work, to politics, to the State? Yes, of course. But first and foremost – Jesus reminds us – you belong to God. This is the fundamental belonging. It is He who has given you all that you are and have. And therefore, day by day, we can and must live our life in recognition of this fundamental belonging and in heartfelt gratitude toward our Father, who creates each one of us individually, unrepeatable, but always according to the image of his beloved Son, Jesus. It is a wondrous mystery.

Christians are called to commit themselves concretely in the human and social spheres without comparing 'God' and 'Caesar;' comparing God and Caesar would be a fundamentalist approach. Christians are called to commit themselves concretely in earthly realities but illuminating them with the light that comes from God. The primary entrustment to God and hope in him do not imply an escape from reality, but rather the diligent rendering to God that which belongs to him. This is why a believer looks to the future reality, that of God, so as to live earthly life to the fullest, and to meet its challenges with courage.

May the Virgin Mary help us to always live in conformity with the image of God that we bear within us, inside, also offering our contribution to the building of the earthly city.

Thought for the Day – World Mission Sunday

Our Mission

Send me, Lord, out into the world that begins at my front door.
May my every word flow from your heart and my actions be of love and peace that everything I do or say reflects your great mercy to all.
Help me witness to your truth no less in my silence than in my words and show me, Lord, the way I should go.

Help me to see that my solemn duty to spread your gospel to everyone in the world is second only to their right to hear and respond to it.
Open my eyes to your presence in others and my ears to recognise your voice especially in the poor and oppressed.

Amen.

(Fr. Joe Veneroso MM)
